

Priyanka to do a Chameli now

Mumbai, February 04: Ever since item numbers have become a rage among Bollywood's A-list actresses, every actress worth her salt is trying to do one. So, it isn't surprising to learn that actress Priyanka Chopra may soon be following suit.

While the audiences are still recovering from the onslaught of numbers like Munni Badnaam Hui, Sheila Ki Jawani and Chikni Chameli, insiders reveal that Priyanka will soon join the bandwagon of actresses doing item numbers. "Priyanka is being considered by Ram Gopal Varma to do an item number for his forthcoming film Department," says a source. The film boasts of actors Amitabh Bachchan, Sanjay Dutt, Rana Daggubati and Naseeruddin Shah and revolves around the internal politics of the police department.

Though actress Katrina Kaif was first considered to continue with her recent item number trend in Department as well, apparently the actress turned down the offer. The source informs, "The producers wanted Katrina to do the item number but she backed out citing some problems. So, now they are currently looking for the right person. Priyanka is on the top of the list. Nothing has been made official yet as they are still figuring out the details." If Priyanka indeed ends up doing the number, it will be the actress's first item number.
